Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L. Jr.

THE SECOND FRONT

When at last a real Second Front is effected on the European mainland, it will mean that an even earlier second front has been rendered ineffective. This may sound like double talk, but a real second front at this time lies off the Atlantic coast of North America. It is the Nazi underwater front, patrolled by long grey raiders that rarely rise to the surface of the sea.

We know approximately how effective is this sinister front against us, for there is, in the Navy's ship sinkings report, an excellent index to our ocean losses. This information is not completely publicized, of course, for military reasons, but it is at least a barometer that lets us know the rise and fall in the number of sinkings per week.

Fortunately this barometer indicates that the curve of sinkings on the Atlantic coast is falling off. This must be due in large part to the scientific approach and high-powered energy of our navy toward seeking out and exterminating these undersea raiders, and to the efficiency of the remarkably successful convoy system.

Small boats, called PC boats, have been tailer-made by navy designers to combat the sub menace. These little, lithe war ships are equipped with the bane of submarine existence—depth bombs—as well as being heavily armed (for their size)..in other respects. They are also equipped with sound detection devices which help them locate and seek out submarines completely hidden from view.

The Second Front which has been so long heralded and cried out for, has been delayed by Hitler's underwater front at our own front door. Now that this vicious temporary situation is being slowly but surely remedied, the real Second Front in Europe must be the way. An attack on Europe must start in the factories and training camps of America. Here is where the raw material, human and mechanical start, and unless a reltively unbroken conveyor belt in the form of ship transportation can carry these men and materials to Europe to bolster and reinforce the initial attack, little is gained and much is lost.

Perhaps the European Second Front will come sooner than we think. Surely we may expect no indication of its exact timing from our military men or rrom our allies. When it comes it must come like lightening—unexpected, sudden, irresistable and devastating.

A civilian population cannot have accurate knowledge of all the factors which it is necessary to know to make decisions on military strategy. This being, so, it is a very moot point whether or not political agitation by civilian organizations advocating an immediate Second Front serves any valuable purpose.

The military services are all employed expressly to bring the war to a victorious end as quickly and efficiently as possible. This is the whole spirit and aim of their lives. Whether public clamor is going to produce any real effect as to a Second Front is dubious. No one but military strategists are equipped to accurately judge the exact effect of such vital war factors as the sub menace described above.

NEVADA EXPECTS MANY CALIFORNIA DEER HUNTERS

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 20.—(UP) The military ban on deer hunting in California probably will bring a major increase in out of state licenses issued in Nevada.

Nevada fish and game officials said they anticipated that hundreds of California hunters would cross the line into Nevada when the deer season opens. No hunting dates have been set in the various counties.

All of Southern California was closed several weeks ago followed by orders closing the northern part of the state. The western defense command said the ban of hunting in California was a military necessity.

Mrs. Pinkey Armstrong Is Deceased

Mrs. Pinckney Armstrong, prominent local resident of many years, died last night at a local hospital following a stroke.

Mrs. Armstrong suffered the stroke at 9 o'clock last night and succumbed at 10:30 o'clock.

The body was taken to the Holmes Funeral Home whee final rites are pending.

The deceased was well known for her charitable enterprises. She took an especially active interest in war work.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong came to Nevada City after Armstrong's retirement from the United States Army, in which Amstrong held an officers' position. The Armstrongs purchased a home on Nevada Street. Following Armstrong's death, Mrs. Armstrong continued to live here.

With her husband Mrs. Armstrong travelled throughout the world and she possesed an intimate knowledge of the Philippine Islands and the Far East. She followed the war news with keen interest and was never more delighted than when she learned where the allied nations had dealt the Japanese a devastating blow.

Mrs. Armstrong was known to her friends as "Pinkey,"

The only known relatives in this section is a nephew Archie Ramsey, who is employed as a cook by the State Division of Forestry.

GERTRUDE CLARK ENDS 6000 MILE CAMPAIGN TOUR

After six thousand miles of campaign travel through the eighteen countiesof her district, Mrs. Gertrude V. Clark, candidate for congress from the 2nd Ditrict, wound up her tour with the issuance of the following statement.

"I believe the people of my district want a change in the character of congress," said Mrs. Clark. "From Modoc to Inyo, I found a great majority of the people I interviewed out of patience with the 77th congress. They resent the short-sightedness, apathy, and narrow bloc loyalties of this congress, especially as manifested in its isolationist bloc, and they are convinced that the present incumbent from California's 2nd District, Mr. Harry L. Englebright, has by his voting record, established his identity with this bloc. I also find it widely doubted that the isalationism which made Pearl Harbar possible has disappeared even with the tragedy of Pearl Harbor. It is feared that the defensive nationalism of the isolationists and their fearful unwillingness to free American diplomacy to take its destined world leadership for democracy, will reappear in full force the moment the present emergency subsides.

"The women of my district, in common with the women of the nation, seem determined to play an increasing part in national affairs. Their sons are now fighting and giving their lives in defense of this nation and its principles. The mothers of these boys, and their wives and sweethearts too, want to see an end to 'politics as usual.' They will use their votes and all the influence they command to swing government into a vigorous prosecution of the war in the interest of an early victory and the establishment of firm policies for securing the peace of the world."

"LOST" MAN FOUND

Alphonse Schwartz, resident of Washington, was reported missing. Deputy Sheriff Carl Larsen and others began a search for him and discovered he was safe and well in a cabin above Washington which he was living in while enjoying a prospecting and fishing trip.

Billy Tobiassen, Stanley Foreman Seriously Hurt In Fire Truck Crash Which Killed Lawrence Gallez, 21

William (Billy) Tobiassen, 16, son of Sheriff and Mrs. Carl J. Tobiassen, and Stanley Foreman, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Foreman of this city, showed improvement today in their battle for life at the Jones Memorial Hospital in Grass Valley, where they were taken yesterday afternoon after the State Division of Forestry Fire truck turned over in Grass Valley, resulting in fatal injuries to Lawrence (Lightning) Gallez, 21, and injuring four others besides Young Tobiassen and Foreman.

Both Tobiassen and Foreman suffered brain concussion. Dr. Orvin P. Fry, attending physician and surgeon, today said there was an improvement in their condition but their injuries were serious.

The sympathies of all Nevada City residents are with the grief stricken parents and other relatives of the two popular local youths, both of whom are students at the Nevada City High School and among the most popular younger residents of the community.

Gallez, who was to enter the armed forces next week, died about two hours after the accident.

There were seven occupants of the fire truck. In addition to Tobiassen and Foreman, the injured are:

Walter Stone, 39, driver of the truck; Victor Clemo, 16, William Kennedy, 18, and Ray Miner, 16. The latter four are also confined to the Jones Memorial Hospital but their injuries are not considered as critical as those of Tobiassen and Foreman.

The accident happened as the Town Talk state fire truck was speeding to a fire in the lower end of the county. Stone told investigating officers as the truck travelled down Mill Street in Grass Valley the throttle stuck. When the slight turn at the Chapel Street intersection was reached Stone attempted to keep the truck under control but the wheels hit the gravel on the shoulder and swerved out of control, turning over twice and coming to rest against a telephone pole.

All of the seven on the truck were thrown clear, two landing in the walnut tree in Al Adams yard and the other striking the pavement and the gravel of the shoulders of the street. Witnesses told officers Gallez was tossed about 30 feet into the air, falling on his head. His death was attributed to a skull fracture.

Residents of he area administered first aid to the injured and the Holmes and Hooper-Weaver ambulances were summoned immediately to take them to the Jones Hopsital.

The fire truck, which was put into service of the Nevada County fire fighting unit but two years ago, was demolished. The fire protection resources of the county was seriouly hampered by the loss of the truck. Following the accident the fire fighter from Shady Creek Camp were summoned to battle the fire to which the men were enroute. The fire was controlled today after burning a number of acres of brush land.

GRAND JURY INDICTS TWO

The Nevada County Grand Jury, meeting here yesterday indicted Charles McFarland, 73, for the murder of Ralph McCumber, 52, his son in law, and indicted Claude Prine, 32, on a charge of manslaughter in the death of John Tersan, 62, of Grass Valley.

The indictments were returned after an all day session in which many witnesses were heard. The two men, both already in the county jail,, were arraigned in the superior court here today before Judge George L. Jones.

FRANK FINNEGAN RETURNS TO NEVADA CITY AFTER TOUR OF DISTRICT IN INTEREST OF HIS ELECTION TO CONGRESS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finnegan and daughter who have been touring the Second Congressional District in the interest of Finnegan's candidacy, returned to Nevada City last night. Finnegan reports an excellent response to his candidacy. A Democrat, he is also on the Republican ballot.

Here To Spend Vacation—

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pratti have arrived to spend their vacation with Pratti's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pratti.

R. R. HENDERSON ASSAILS ALIBIS 77TH CONGRESS

R. R. Henderson, Congressional Candidate for the second district, closed his campaign this week with these remarks:

"All in all, the Seventy-seventh Congress of the United States cannot be said to furnish an inspiring example of patriotic self-sacrifice. Even its alibis are pretty feeble.

"This is not only wartime, but the most critical period of the most critical year of the war. These appear to be only minor considerations compared with the need of congressmen to get themselves re-elected.

"That they have so shirked their obligation is characteristic of congress which voted itself pensions and then made it worse by revoking the action when it came to public attention. It is characteristic of the congress which trampled itself in a stampede for special gasoline privileges.

"Even now, why are we told that a real shortage of rubber exists and then are fed optimistic stories about 'new processes' the next? What good can be accomplished by telling the people to conserve rubber and then threatening to seize their tires?

"The answer is politics. Criminally cheap politics!

"Politics that somehow conveys the idea that nothing much can be done about this war until after the fall elections. What a sickening thought in the moment of our naton's greatest peril!

"From various polls taken through out the country it is clear that the people stand ready to make any sacfifce, but they demand truth and actian in return. No one in congress need fear they can't take the truth. Once it is told we'll all get down to business and make some real headway with the job at hand.

Rodents Bubonic Plague Menace

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Vacationists were warned today to beware of wild rodents which transmit bubonic plague and other serious diseases.

Dr. Bertram Brown, director of the state department of health, said rodents which have been found to be infected include rats of all kinds, chipmunks, ground squirrels, field mice, rabbits, gophers, prairie dogs and ground hogs. The disease usually is spread to man by the bite of a blood-sucking insect which has first fed upon an infected animal.

No cases have occurred among humans this year, but Dr. Brown advised campers and others living in rural areas not to handle or feed rodents and to avoid contact with their nests or burrows.

A. B. Innis has suspended his dredging operations at the famous Malakoff in the Columbia Hill section. And a suit has been filed in the superior court here against Innis by the San Juan Gold Company, which seeks $2100, allegedly due for renting of the dredging land to Innis. The suit sets forth that the dredging operator has not paid the rent, at the rate of $300 per month, since last December.

LETS GET IT OVER AT THE PRIMARIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—"Let's elect Earl Warren governor of California on Auuust 25—and spend the rest of the time between now and the November election fighting the Japs and redoubling our war effort against the Axis," was the challenge directed at the voters of the state today by Lucius Powers, Jr., prominent Fresno county agriculturalist, lawyer and former legislator, as the pre-primary campaign nears an end.

"Let's get it over at the primaries!" Powers added. "No governor has been re-elected in almost three decades and certainly Governor Olson, with his official record of utter unconcern for preparedness has earned no right to continued leadership of a war-zone state!" the Fresno leader said.

Warren headquarters in this city reports receiving similar declarations from many sections of the state. One of these came from A. M. Davis, Brentwood. The prominent Diablo Valley farm leader urged Warren supporters to "put fire into it, and the election can be over at the primaries." Warren himself has made no claim he could capture both nominations at the primaries, although four years ago he won the Democratic, Republican and Progressive nominations, and virtual election, at the August primary.

"Simultaneous pleas to 'get it over in August' have challenged Warren non-partisan headquarters in all sections of California to redouble their pre-primary efforts," Clem Whitaker, northern campaign director, said today. "From the mountain counties, the interior valleys and the coastal counties have come the optimistic hope that energies may be directed entirely toward fighting the Axis enemies after August 25. Such precedent breaking prospects may be slight," he said, "but careful election analysts say there can be no doubt, as the primary campaign nears an end, that Earl Warren will be California's next governor.

Concluding his campaign in Southern California last Monday when he addressed the American Legion department convention, Warren previously promised "an end to the pardoning of murderers like King, Ramsey and Conner, just to appease the subversive elements of the state. The non-partisan candidate at the same time re-committed himself to an "enlnightened parole system" and promised "to take all politics out of the state's prison system."

Warren won support early in the campaign from thousands of old age pensioners for his insistence on their right to keep their casual earnings, and for his declaration that pensions to "elder citizens" was a matter of right—"as something we earn in our productive years by our contribution to the upbuilding of the community" Warren said.

Farmers, labor leaders, veterans, school people and club women have flocked to the Warren colors, supporting him in his campaign to take "cheap partisan politics" out of state government and to offer instead a odqunited front in California's effort toward winning the war and for the readjustment period following. At the same time wholesale desertions from Governor Olson's camp by Democrats and former supporters how aligned with Warren, have rendered meaningless the preponderantly Democratic registration figures this year in California, it is said.

Caught in the Riffles

The Nevada City Nugget on two different occasions pointed out in this column that a residence in the Glenbrook district was being used for illicit urposes following the ban of houses of prostitution in Nevada City.

The home was that of Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. (Jim) Harvey. The Harveys came into The Nugget office Tuesday to explain the circumstances surrounding the use of their home for that purpose.

Harvey is now employed in defense work in the bay area. He said the house was rented to two individuals who represented themselves as a dredge operator and wife, here for their health.

"They made attempts to purchase the property," Harvey said, "but we would not sell. The rent was paid monthly until August 1st. When the next month's rent failed to come in Mrs. Harvey left for Glenbrook to investigate.

"The place was locked and windows nailed down. It was not until she was there a short while however, that she learned what our home was being used for. Cars to our home and men demanded to see the girls. Mrs. Harvey was stunned to learn the purpose to which our home had been devoted. I was equally surprised and shocked when Mrs. Harvey informed me of what had been going on.

"It was our desire to prefer charges against the tenants, who gave their names as Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Green. The district attorney, however, said the use of our home for immoral purposes was 'nothing more than a bunch of unconfirmed rumors started by your neighbors,' and advised Mrs. Harvey that nothing could be done about it.

"Our only alternative is to take other means to bring to the attention of the general public and our many friends in Nevada County that in no way had we any connection with the operation of the immoral business conducted in our home. Nor did any one advise us of what was going on. We would have taken proper action if the matter was brought to our attention."

Robert Paine yesterday resigned his position as freight agent of the Nevada County Narrow Gauge Railroad. He will enjoy a deserved rest before venturing into something new. In addition Paine is expecting a call into the United States Army's Officer's Training School. For 12 years Paine has been connected with the narrow gauge railroad and his hard work in the railroad's behalf has done much to place it as one of the most important links in the lives of the people of Nevada County. During the illness and absence of General Manager J. E. Taylor, Paine capably handled the operative duties of the railroad. His departure from railroad life will be sincerely regretted.

People's eyes have opened wide in wonderment when Irving Long drives by in his "new" car.

But Long and the Nevada City tire and car rationing board have received unjust criticism. The car is a 1941 automobile and was purchased second hand by Long. And the car rationing board can only authorize the purchase of 1942 automohiles.

Two of the greatest events of the week in Hawaii are the arrival of the Monday and Thursday Nuggets. This is according to Joseph Sbaffi, who is with the army in Hawaii. Bob Paine recently subscribed The Nugget for Sbaffi and the latter not only enjoys it but writes that The Nugget is passed around until nearly every former Nevada County resident now over in the Islands gets a chance to read them.

Joe, like his brother, John, who last week was commissioned a second lieutenant after attending officer's training school, is getting ahead the hard way in his army career. Joe enlisted in the army but a short time ago but already he has been advanced to private, first class. Because of his experience as assistant postmaster at Alleghany, Joe has been assigned to the army postal department.

NEWS IN RHYME

Over KJBS Daily at 12:30 P. M.
By Harley M. Leete, Jr.

Whe-ew! It's getting drafty here:
That one-A wind is whistling near!
Major Going says it's going,
To be compulsory to join.
And he's not distraught or nervous,
For he heads Selective Service,
In this proud Pacific State,
So he knows the drafting rate.
Most chaps—twenty—forty-five,
Will get a chance to really strive.
If they're able-bodied, healthy,
Either poor or very wealthy.
Have dependents but no wife,
Then they're set for army life!
If they've spouse, but children none,
Civilian life's near done.
They'll soon be on a camp-bound tram:
Their new employer's Uncle Sam.
They'll throw away that new bought suit,
Uncle Sam has one that's sure a beaut.
The buttons shine—of purest brass.
The whole outfit's smooth as glass.
And with the khaki also goes,
A feeling that the wearer knows,
He plays at the part of full-grown man,
In our world-embracing vic'try plan.
And with it goes a rifle, too,
With bullets bright and shining new.
Bullets with a message writ,
That in Mikado's face will spit.
The work is good, the pay is right:
It's every Yankee's job to fight.
But whee-ew! that wind is near!
It's making noises like a leer—
Well, the time has come, the walrus said:
The draft board calls full steam ahead,
And a recruiting sergeant there I see.
What? But—! Hey! No, you can't mean me!

A merely fallen enemy may rise again; but the reconciled one is truly vanquished.—Schiller.

A cherished tradition among telephone men and women is that "the message must go through."

War messages for the sake and safety of all of us must go through first.

The demands of War are placing a load on our Long Distance lines often beyond their capacity.

It is impossible to build more switchboards and lines because materials such as copper must be used in making munitions and weapons.

You who use the telephone in these critical times can aid in getting War messages through promptly and in cutting down possible delays on your own essential calls if you will—

Be brief—Plan what you want to say.
Make calls only that you find essential.

"Dim Out" Driving On Country Roads Very Hazardous

Suggestions for dim out driving in areas visible from the sea were issued today by the California State Automobile Association as follows:

Since parking lights generally provide compliance with the 250 beam candlepower maximum, purchase of additional lighting equipment by automobile owner as a rule is unnecessary. With due caution, motorists can become accustomed to driving with parking lights, especially in cities where street lights aid visibility. On country roads, dim-out driving will present serious problems.

Shielding of the top of parking lights will be advisable on cars where such lights are on the fenders and so constructed as to throw a glare back into the driver's eyes and make dim-out driving difficult.

Adaptor devices can be placed on foglights or auxiliary lights to reduce their brilliance to the required limit, or their volume can be reduced by masking or use of lower candlepower lamps. If in doubt as to the candlepower of such lights, have them checked at an official headlight inspection station.

Gasoline Tax Money For Nevada Co. $15,409.10

State Controller Harry B. Riley today apportioned $15,408.10 of gasoline tax money to Nevada County for the quarter ended June 30.

The allotment was made on the basis of a motor vehicle registration of 6,546 for this county.

Riley said the apportionment was part of a total distribution of $12,036,559 of gasoline tax revenue. Of the total he apportioned $4,012,186 to California's fifty eight counties; the balance of $8,024,274 he deposited in the state highwa fund for highway construction and maintenance.

Of the latter amount $2,006,093 will be apportioned later to cities for highway work to be done either by the cities themselves or by the Division of Highways on thoroughfares within cities.

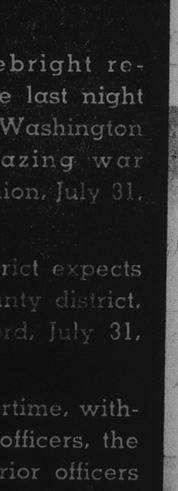
TO THE VOTERS OF THE 6TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT:



Although unopposed on the ballot in next Tuesday's election, I shall be very grateful for your vote of confidence.

As I stated in announcing my candidacy last April, "I consider a public office a public trust. If you believe I have been faithful to that trust, I shall greatly appreciate your support."

I have always considered it an honor to serve the people of the 6th District in the State Assembly and want you to know that I deeply appreciate that honor.

H. E. KJORLIE NEW PRESIDENT OF RED CROSS

Nevada City Chapter accepted the resignation of Carroll Coughlan as chairman and H. E. Kjorlie was appointed by the nominating committee to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Douglass also resigned as secretary and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman will assume the duties of the office with Mrs. R. R. Goyne as assistant.

Mrs. Carroll Coughlan who has filled the office of Home Service Chairman the past year will be unable to continue owing to press of other duties. Appointment of her successor will be announced in a few days. This is a very important chairmanship and requires knowledge of welfare work in a great degree.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Emily Lagerquist had been made key nurse for ElDorado, Nevada and Placer Counties which position includes solicitation of nurses for government appointments as well as information regarding various phases of the nursing profession.

The quilt donated by Mrs. Percy Carr and displayed in the window of the Alpha Hardware Company will be raffled Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Truckee Branch of the Chapter has lost its chairman, Rev. G. J. Keetch, he having been transferred t oSusanville. Rev. Keetch and his wife have been very energetic in civic projects and will be missed in Red Cross circles, their enthusiasm inspiring the citizens of Truckee to wonderful efforts in various branches. Almost every citizen has taken a course in first aid and several of the members are certified to instruct in that department. Truckee's loss is Susanville's gain. As yet there has been no announcement of chairmanship of the branch.

DEMOCRATS URGE SUPPORT OF EARL WARREN

'Olson Must Go,' Says Democratic Leader: Democrats Head Warren Committees

Signalling the mounting volume of rank and file Democrats switching away from Olson leadership, Democratic Assemblyman Jack B. Tenney, well known Musicians Union Leader in Los Angeles and legislative investigator of subversive activities, strongly opposes Governor Olson's reelection.

Tenney was one of the governor's staunchest supporters at the beginning of the Olson administration. This is what he now has to say:

"There can be no real Democracy within the Democratic party in California so long as its control rests with the present leadership. There is no room for independent thinking or wholesome opposition to the MACHINE.

"Olson has mistaken leadership for ownership. A change is absolutely necessary. Olson must go!"

Tenney's position is endorsed it appears by thousands of Democrats in California. Significantly, Democratic leaders head more than half of County Committees active in the Warren campaign for Governor.

"Democrats," declares Jos. J. Rosborough, former Oakland Postmaster and Democratic leader, "should ponder well the words of Assemblyman Tenney, an outstanding leader in our own party.

"In this time of great national emergency, President Roosevelt has asked that petty partisanship be adjourned for greater responsibilities. California needs an administration pledged to that principle. Earl Warren, whose integrity has never been questioned, pledges such an administration. And Warren has never been known to break his word."
